

2022 Festival of Trees

Christmas in Romney will be celebrating its 2nd Annual Festival of Trees. Christmas in Romney will again provide displays of a winter wonderland throughout the city. The Festival of Trees will be displayed on the lawn of Taggart Hall at 91 South High Street, Romney, WV. You will find beautifully decorated trees donated and decorated by local businesses, schools, civic groups, and individuals. All Christmas in Romney activities and the Festival of Trees are open to everyone!

Tree Adoption

To participate in this tradition, you can adopt a live tree provided by the Festival of Trees Committee. Your organization provides decorations and the people needed to decorate it.

Benefits of Participating!

- A unique and impactful means of advertising for your business or organization
  - Signage is provided that prominently displays your name, group, or organization with your logo
  - Tree decorations can match your business
- Team-building opportunity for your employees, classmates, and group organization
- Provides our community with a festive display and gathering to celebrate the holiday season
